

DRAFT
WEST COAST
SEA GRANT FISHERIES EXTENSION EDUCATOR CONCLAVE:
“Forging Coastwide and Pacific Connections”
Aug 12-14, 2008
Petersburg, Alaska

Objectives:

- Maintain and strengthen connections among West Coast fisheries extension agents and researchers,
- Identify opportunities for cooperative work among agents, and
- Share perspectives on fishery management/clientele extension methods and issues

Tuesday, August 12

AS flt #65 departs Seattle at 7:30 am, arrives Petersburg 11:00 am

1:30 to 2:00	Welcome and Introductions Torie Baker and Sunny Rice, Alaska Sea Grant
2:00 to 3:30	Agent Presentations: Tricks and Tools of the Trade – extension projects in review (5 minutes each)
3:30 to 4:00	Break
4:00 to 5:00	Introduction to Gulf of Maine Research Institute and next day’s activity Laura Taylor Singer, Gulf of Maine Research Institute
6:00	Seafood dinner together
Evening	Reading assignment for morning activity

Wednesday, August 13

8:00 to 8:30	Alaska Mug Up (coffee, juice & muffins)
8:30 to 12:30	Negotiation as Public Discourse: Lake Wasota Fishing Rights Case Study Laura Taylor Singer, Gulf of Maine Research Institute
12:30 to 1:30	Lunch together

- 1:30 to 2:00 FEE Program Update
Pete Granger and Paul Olin, WA and CA Sea Grants Tour of
- 2:00 to 3:00 Petersburg Community Cold Storage
Liz Cabrera – Petersburg Economic Development Council
- 3:00 to 5:00 Informal networking opportunity: Guided nature walk and salmon viewing
- Evening Dinner on your own

Thursday, August 14

- 8:00 to 8:30 Alaska Mug Up (coffee, juice & muffins)
- 8:30 to 10:00 Alaska Fisheries Management Systems Presentation and Panel
Speakers TBA
- 10:00 to 10:30 Wrap up
- AS flight #65 departs Petersburg 11:40 am, arrives Seattle 5:07 pm via Juneau
- 11:00 to 3:30 Optional Leconte glacier tour - $100
- AS flight #64 departs Petersburg 5:37 pm, arrives Seattle 10:48 pm